

Sleeping Beauty

Birthday Princess

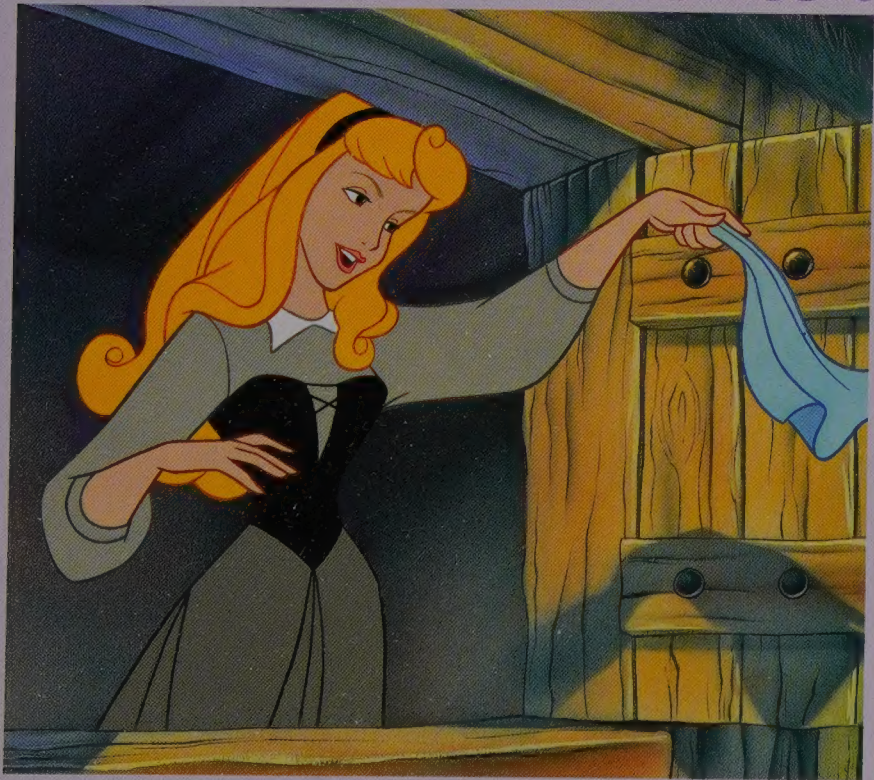

Remember as you read,
with Briar Rose's birthday story!

Once there was a princess called Aurora who was cursed to prick her finger and die on her sixteenth birthday by the wicked Maleficent. The good fairy, Merryweather, countered the curse so that Aurora would not die, but would fall into a deep sleep.

The three good fairies took Aurora to a humble cottage to protect her and keep her safe. They called her Briar Rose.

What was the good fairy called?

On Briar Rose's sixteenth birthday,
the good fairies baked a cake and made a beautiful gown fit for a princess.

That evening they were to attend
a party at the castle where Briar Rose would meet her Prince and by nightfall the curse would be lifted and Briar Rose would be Princess Aurora once more.

What did the good fairies bake on Briar Rose's birthday?

Meanwhile, in the forest where she had been collecting berries, Briar Rose had met a handsome young man who she had met before, once upon a dream.

The couple fell in love, but little did Briar Rose know, this young man was the prince she was betrothed to marry!

Where had Briar Rose met the young man before?

At the castle, Aurora was lured away from the good fairies by a strange green light. It was Maleficent's curse!

She pricked her finger on a spinning wheel and fell into a deep sleep.

What colour was the strange light that lured Aurora away?

The wicked spell could only be broken by true love's kiss.

The prince fought the many dangers laid in his way by Maleficent – until he found Aurora sleeping in the castle.

When he kissed her, the spell was broken and the couple lived happily ever after.

What was the one thing that could break the wicked spell?
